

HEADS OF GROUP

WILTSHIRE WET LEO'S HEADS VOLUNTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

All designated Heads for the above group agree to follow the voluntary code of contact set out for the good of the group.

1. To help and assist in the training of all the groups members following the LCGB Rules and Regulations and the groups own members voluntary code of conduct.
2. Where possible to be at Training days on the days stipulated at the beginning of the season in a timely fashion as set out by the group's code of conduct.
3. To ensure, where possible and following the guidelines set out by the LCGB in the rules and regulations, the safety of each member, visitors and dog(s) to the group.
4. Where appropriate and possible, be willing to receive or attend training to help further the knowledge, skills and experience within the group for the groups benefit.
5. To be available to members or visitors to the group for discussions regarding the groups activities or regarding any concerns that members or visitors may have and to report directly to all the heads of the group for any necessary discussion or decision.
6. Where possible to attend the Heads pre-training briefing at each session and be willing to update any late arrivals to the group on decision for the day and any safety issues and training for that day.
7. To be unbiased regarding situations where a Heads decision is necessary that may occur within the group, and to make an unbiased decision based on the facts available regardless of the relationship to any member of the group or any dog that might be involved in any such discussion or decision.
8. To help, remind and encourage other members of the group to follow the members' code of conduct for the group, and help create a fun and friendly atmosphere within the group.

I hereby agree to the above Code of Conduct as an invited Head of the Wiltshire Wet Leo's Water Rescue Training Group, a Group run as an event under the rules and regulations, of the Leonberger Club of Great Britain.
